EZRAS TORAH'S

SOURCES OF INCOME:

1. Generous individual donors.
2. Shul and Yeshiva appeals, particularly from those held on Parshas Shekolim.
3. Collections and appeals made at summer and winter resorts, hotels, and bungalow colonies.
4. Monies received from local and national Jewish Federations.
5. Wills and bequests.
6. Ladies Auxiliaries of Ezras Torah.
7. Special events such as Parlor Meetings, Breakfasts, Melava Malkas.
8. Monies collected from the Ezras Torah Pushkas. A Pushka can be obtained by writing or calling the Ezras Torah office.
9. Monies that are obtained by the sale of the various Ezras Torah calendars — the Hebrew Wall and Pocket Calendars, and the English Pocket Calendar.

The vast majority of the monies that Ezras Torah collects for distribution is obtained through the hard work of volunteers in America and throughout the world.

A Contribution To Ezras Torah Is a Charitable Act That Encompasses Every Aspect of Tzedakkah and Chesed.

And happy are those who participate.

With the passings of the Gaon HaRav Yosef Eliyahu Henkin, the Gaon HaRav Naftali Zvi Yehuda Riff, the Gaon HaRav Moshe Feinstein, and the Gaon HaRav Dovid Lifshitz, ל"צ, who all devoted so much brilliance, energy, and effort to Ezras Torah, it is incumbent upon all of us to lend a hand and to participate in Ezras Torah's activities.

In these days of Divine Compassion and of our prayers for forgiveness, may we all deserve to see the salvation of all Israel, and may the Al-Mighty fulfill the requests of our hearts for good; for us and for all Israel.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF EZRAS TORAH

HARAV EMANUEL GETTINGER
President

A Letter From The Chofetz Chaim, ל"צ, Regarding EZRAS TORAH:

7 Shevat 5688 (1928)

With due respect to the outstanding Rabbis and Gaonim who compose the administrative committee of the Ezras Torah Organization in America. May the pleasantness of HaShem be upon you.

In regard to your request of my issuing a public proclamation for Ezras Torah to the effect of arousing the American Jewish public to come to the aid of this Holy institution; in my opinion such a request is superfluous. Who is there among our brethren in America, who has a modicum of piety in his heart, who does not already know that it is a great Mitzvah to come to the support of this Holy institution that is so vital for Rabbis and to the entire world of Torah scholars and that has been involved in actual life and death matters at times?

Happy is the man who supports and aids a Jewish man in his time of need, and especially if the needy man is a Torah scholar. It is unnecessary for me to elaborate upon the greatness of the Mitzvah of supporting the Torah, especially in our times when the Torah is regarded with great disrespect.

May HaShem, in His goodness, elevate the radiance of Torah to this entire world, speedily and in our times. Amen

YISROEL MEIR HACHOHEN
(The Chofetz Chaim)

A Declaration From Ezras Torah To Our Brethren, The People Of Israel, Wherever They May Sojourn:

With Warm Wishes For Peace And With Blessings For A Good Year.

This holy organization, Ezras Torah, from the time of its founding in 5675 (1915) until the present time; throughout its history of more than three quarters of a century, has always maintained the highest standards in the administration of vital aid and succor to needy Torah scholars, Rabbis, Gaonim and Tzaddikim, and widows and orphans.

During the course of this time, beginning with World War One, the Jewish people experienced many years of incredible suffering, hardship, and tragic persecution. Ezras Torah maintained a constant vigil in order to help ease the misery of those who were suffering, to the extent of its ability.

And now, with the turmoil and upheaval that exists throughout the world, the administration of Ezras Torah is hard pressed to help find the solutions for the following problems:

- a) The terrible economy of our Holy Land, and the rampant inflation that worsens from day to day.

- b) The very painful housing shortage that exists in our Holy Land. In this matter we have invested tremendous effort to offer vital housing aid.
- c) New immigrants, in particular those from Russia, even when they escape to some degree of tranquility, must still receive tremendous support during their initial period of adjustment.
- d) Modest families of the highest moral and religious calibre turn to us with requests of a type that we receive from all over the world. They are not seeking handouts, rather, help of the most honorable kind. Their eyes are turned to our holy organization and they look to us for some type of support. The administration of Ezras Torah has exerted itself above and beyond its capacity in order to increase the level of aid to all those who need it. In doing so we have sunken into debt well over our heads.

Besides all of the special situations, Ezras Torah has not abandoned its constant ongoing philanthropy:

- To the young married men of more than 600 kollels in the Land of Israel who receive financial aid at Yom Tov time.
- Respectable financial marriage grants to young couples.
- Financial grants to the ill and to families who are in great duress because of someone's illness.

- Vital financial aid to observant families who suddenly find themselves in financial crisis.

- A very special source of Bracha are the Perpetual interest-Free Loan Funds that Ezras Torah runs in our Holy Land, that were founded at the insistence of the Gaon HaRav Yosef Eliyahu Henkin, זצ"ל.

More than one thousand of these loan funds exist today. These funds are the fruits of the generosity of cherished benefactors whose desire is to aid the needy in the most honorable manner possible, while at the same time perpetuating the memories of their most cherished relatives or friends.

Many thousands of individuals and families have received aid from these loan funds, while hundreds of urgent requests for loans are waiting their turn. To our great distress we do not always have enough funds available to meet all requests.

Therefore we turn to cherished contributors in all parts of the world, to send in their large and generous donations. We also seek people who wish to establish new Perpetual Interest-Free Loan Funds. All those who can afford to do so, should endeavor to take part in a Mitzvah of such great magnitude.

- Charity is great, for it saves a person from the way of death.
- Charity is great, for it lengthens the days and years of a person.
- Charity is great, for it brings a person into the life of the world to come.
- Charity is great, for it equates with Torah.
- Charity is great, for Torah equates with it.
- Charity is great, for it quickens the day of Ben-David and the days of our redemption.
- Charity is great, for it elevates the soul and seats and places it under the throne of glory.

(Tanna D'bei Eliyahu Zvta 1)
